One member has a large collection of all the Viking boats and possibly still has them posted in Collections here.		Set Topic Introduction Show Email Subscribers

I went to the pharmacy to refill a prescription and ran into the allergy Doctor. He confirmed that the smoke is bad, said he's had some of calls. Feeling better, but still have a bit of a headache.
I'd never seen the lion or any others like him before I found him last summer. Wish I had one of the paddle boats, but I've never came across one I could afford Nancy that condiment set is cute, I like Debi's too. I'll have to put those on my watch list!
