Love the purple thistle salt and #42 sea monster!

I felt lucky to find a pair of these antique swan salts with lemon squeezer foot in clear glass at a country antique mall on one of my rambles with my sister around the Midwest.

I think the problem is that most of us have what's already been pictured, so there's no reason to duplicate. I've enjoyed them all, but haven't had time to check and see if I have something that hasn't been shown! Believe it or not, but this month is almost OVER(I thought it was April, last month!), WHERE does the time go!

I'm sure you're right Don. I was hoping for Mary and some of the others to post those frosted animals. OSC #772, 773. They were on the message board not that long ago. There was a purple frosted cow?, or ram and someone actually had a clear one, a bulldog, aND more. There's a whole set. I have none, which is why I love seeing them here.

There are endless swans, but most of mine are like or similar to those already posted. Some categories have more variations than others, and I think we just covered this topic fairly early. Still, it was good eye candy.
