

WELCOME
TO THE
WONDERFUL WORLD
OF HEISEY OPEN SALTS

AS AN ADDED ATTRACTION
OTHER HEISEY ITEMS THAT MAY
MAKE IT INTO OUR COLLECTIONS

THANKS AND APPRECIATION TO:

- James Taylo for his Heisey Individual and Table Salts and his assistance in preparation of this presentation.
- Ed Berg for his Salty Comments on Heisey Salts and his assistance in preparation of this presentation.
- Don Rabourn for his assistance in preparation of this presentation.
- Walter Ludwig, Curator, National Heisey Glass Museum
- All members that have provided pictures of items for the presentation and Salts for the display.

Please note that any measurements can vary, due to some items being made in more than one mold, variance in the amount of glass used in hand pressing of the items, and reshaping of some items after removal from the mold.

Heisey Salts in Question

This salt is a perfect match for a Higbee Salt, but has a A diamond-H in the bottom made with an acid stamp. Some say genuine Heisey, but many doubt that it is.

Berg Salty Comments

Dish called a “Blown Salt or Ash” in a salesman’s flyer Issued during World War II. Dubbed the “Berg Salt” in the “Heisey News” Actual dish has never been found to our knowledge.
