"Melon Rib"
Mount Washington Glass Co. c.1874

Known colors: Opaque white, pastel shades of blue, pink and yellow with various hand painted decorations.

Note: Glass was made by Mount Washington but decorated by Smith Bros. Some have locations as "Onset", MA for souvenir trade or words such as "Easter". As far as it is known only some of the "Prunus Blossom" decorated ones have been found with the Smith Bros. mark. A few also bear a Libbey Glass mark.

True reason for this mark is not known but said to be from the 1893 Chicago World's Fair.

Same as H&J 35-44 and H&J 63-64 are master size.
