How to Distinguish the Manufacturer

DEGENHART

Degenhart circa 1966...the chick salts were made from an Island Co, (Weishar) mold in over 50 colors. Marked with the "D" in a heart for Degenhart in 1972

Identifying Features:

1. Straight Head and Tail
2. Neck and beak are thick.
3. Basket weave design on Nest sides and bottom
4. Scalloped Edge Top

Base 2-1/2" x 2" Top 2" x 1-1/2"

The mold was transferred to Boyd in 1978.

BOYD

Boyd circa 1978...Boyd calls this a "one-inch chick". Made from the Degenhart mold in over 220 colors. Marked with one of seven "B" in a diamond marks indicating a specific five-year period beginning in 1978. There is also a Boyd signature mark starting in 1997.

Identifying Features:

1. Straight Head and Tail
2. Neck and beak are thick.
3. Basket weave design on Nest sides and bottom
4. Scalloped Edge Top

Base 2-1/2" x 2" Top 2" x 1-1/2"

WESTMORELAND

Westmoreland #3 Chick salt: First produced about 1925. The designation of a "1" chick salt may be the way older glass companies and even Degenhart and Boyd today referred to their chick salts even though they are not that size. Made in a range of colors.

Identifying Features:

1. Head very Slightly turned to the right and Thicker Neck than Degenhart or Boyd
2. Straight Tail
3. Chucky beak, swirled feathers around the neck
4. Basket weave design on Nest sides and bottom
5. Scalloped Edge Top

Base 2-1/2" x 2" Top 2" x 1-1/2"

WESTMORELAND CONTINUED

Note: Westmoreland "cased" color is a unique glass decoration treatment where paint was mixed with glass frit and sprayed on milk glass then refired. The "cased" colors are cited as being made 1940-1980
 Base 2-1/2" x 2" Top 2" x 1-1/2"
 Later reproductions by Rosso

ROSSO

Toy Chick Salt: Often marked "R" in keystone. Produced from an original Westmoreland mold in 10 colors, many in satin.

Identifying Features: SEE WESTMORELAND ID FEATURES

Base 2-1/2" x 2" Top 2" x 1-1/2"

SMITH

First listed in company inventories in 1934. Referred to as a chick salt dip in the beginning, and then as a hen on nest beginning in 1951. They stopped appearing in catalogs after 1979.

Identifying Features:

1. Straight Head and Tail
2. Geometric Crosshatch Design on Nest sides
3. Smooth Plain bottom

The Smith chick salt is often confused with the imports from Asia (or vice versa).
 Base 2-3/8" x 1-7/8"
 Top 2" x 1-1/2"

WETZEL/E.E. COLLECTIBLES

Wetzel F101 salt. The hen was made in several colors, and marked "R Wetzel" on the bottom edge.

In 1986 the mold and inventory was sold to Ed Bowman of E & E Collectibles. Reissued in 48 colors. Marked E.E. on the center bottom.
 Base 1 3/8" D. Top 1 3/16" D

Identifying Features:

- 1 Straight Head and Tail
- 2 Basket weave design on Nest sides, Plain bottom
- 3 Straight Plain Edge Top

MOSSER

Mosser salt chick No. 230 is an original mold first produced in 1987. Marked with an underlined "M" in the bowl.

Identifying Features:

1. Head Turned to the Left, Straight Tail
2. Vertical Rib design on Nest sides, Basket Weave bottom
3. Flared Rim with Scalloped Edge

Made in over 60 colors, some satin or iridized finishes. Found with decals and etched designs on the backs and basket rims.
